IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

RE: Course repetition and withdrawal changes

Effective summer 2012, SRJC will implement new limitations regarding course repetition and withdrawal in a single course. These limitations are mandated by newly adopted Board of Governors’ Title 5 regulations. Students repeating a course, in which they previously received a substandard grade of D, F, NC, NP, and/or a W symbol, will be limited to three enrollments total. Therefore, students are advised to carefully choose their courses each term to ensure successful completion. These new regulations are retroactive to the Fall 1981 semester, therefore, some students may find that they have already exhausted the repeat and withdrawal limitation of three enrollments. Students may petition to repeat/enroll in the course a fourth time and may be approved if specific criteria are met.

Of significant importance for the current spring 2012 semester, the last day to drop a full semester course without a W is Sunday, February 12, 2012. Students are advised to pay particular attention to this deadline. Dropping a course after this deadline will result in a W on the student record, which will count toward the new repeat and withdrawal limitations.

Students are advised to view their records in their myCubby student portal in an effort to determine how they may be affected by this new policy. They may also contact Admissions & Records at 707-527-4685 or Counseling at 707-527-4451 if they have questions.
